PARLEZ VOUS FRANCE SAVE?

We all know it's cheaper to buy your wine in France, but why and how much can you save? Well, it's because you don't pay UK duty which is £1.61 per bottle, or the VAT on that duty.

We've taken this saving, and topped it up a little, to bring you a simple proposition:

WHATEVER THE PRICE OF A BOTTLE OF STILL WINE IS IN MAJESTIC UK, YOU WILL PAY AT LEAST £2 LESS FOR IT AT MAJESTIC IN FRANCE.

Take Rioja Crianza Berberana. It's a great wine, well worth its £7.99 Majestic UK price tag. Majestic UK, always great value, are offering a multibuy deal on this to £5.99 this Spring. So, at Majestic in France we're offering it at £5.99 or £3.99 when you buy two. Simple.

You can see for yourself on the feature pages of this list which detail the lowest price available in Majestic UK, indicated as –  MAJESTIC UK SINGLE BOTTLE EXXXX MAJESTIC UK MULTI-BUY EXXXX

We're guaranteeing £2 on still wine only and excluding Champagne for a simple reason – you'll probably save much more than that! UK duty on sparkling wine is a whopping £2.06 ex vat; couple that with local French prices and savings off UK prices can be up to £20 per bottle!!

Please note spirits and beers are also excluded – tax on these products varies depending on alcohol content, so it's difficult to guarantee. Not to worry though, our prices are always temptingly low.

With prices like ours, it won't come as a shock that our customers buy in bulk for special events. To cater for this, we have a smaller range than Majestic but larger stock holdings of individual lines. We're sorry we can't carry the whole Majestic UK range, but rest assured we've handpicked the best of it!

And it really doesn't matter about the exchange rate – just pay by Sterling cash or cheque and get the prices exactly as advertised.

Pay £2 less per bottle guarantee refers to still wine collected from Wine & Beer World stores in France only, and is a comparison to Majestic Wine Warehouses UK prices.*

Namaqua White NV 3 Litre, Wine Box, South Africa £6.99
Buy 4 boxes Save £4 £5.99

These South African boxed wines are a great way to economise without compromising on quality. The unoaked red is medium bodied and beautifully fruit driven and the white (also unoaked) is crisp, dry with plenty of fruit to prevent it being over acidic. This was one of our Christmas best sellers and its versatility enables it to be suitable for any season or occasion!

HOW MUCH CAN I CARRY?

To make the most of your trip, you'll want to fit as much wine and beer in your car as possible! A typical family saloon will easily carry 10 cases of wine (at 15kg each), 10 packs of beer, (24x33cl bottles at 15kg each) and 8 boxes of champagne (6 bottles at 10kg each), plus the driver.

- If in doubt, check your owner's manual for the load capacity of your vehicle.
- Remember to allow space for passengers!
- Our experienced staff will be happy to help you load your car safely.

Enjoy a great day out too!

Aside from making substantial financial savings, you're in France! Even if it's just a day trip, there's always time for some gastronomic delights...

What I love about France is whichever restaurant you go to, from the dizzy heights of the Michelin stars to the humble café, the food is always, always, sublime. Moules et Frites, Boeuf Bourguignon, Lobster Bisque, Crepes, Cassoulet, Croque-monsieur, Steak au Poivre, Tarte tatin....this list is endless and my mouth is watering as I write!

There's always time for lunch and to help you pick, we've asked our French-based staff for their tried and tested favourite restaurants – take a look at majesticinfrance.co.uk/infoOnCalais for their recommendations.

If dining in isn't your thing, then pack a picnic blanket, grab a baguette, some saucisson, some wonderfully stinky cheese, and of course a bottle of Beaujolais and make your way down to the beach. Calais itself has a fantastic beach for long strolls or paddling if you're feeling brave! If you have a bit more time on your hands the near-by beaches at Wissant and Wimereux offer some breathtaking views of the Channel.

If Cherbourg's your destination, then you're in luck – it's a lovely coastal town. Normandy is a great area for gourmet travellers, and is famous for its cider, fabulous seafood and, of course, its oysters. La Manche is the most westerly department of Normandy and includes the magnificent Mont Saint-Michel, as well as La Hague which is a wild and beautiful landscape. There's a great beach right next to the ferry terminal too, Collignon beach.

If you've got a little bit more time, the historic Flemish town of Brugge is about one hour north of Calais and is well worth a visit. This beautiful Belgian town has extremely beautiful architecture interwoven with canals and is known as the Venice of the North. With a multitude of museums, churches, canals and enough chocolates shops to keep you happy for days this is a perfect weekend break destination.

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

Who are we?

Wine & Beer World has three stores in Northern France. We have 15 years' experience selling wine to travellers making the most of the low duty rates in France. Wine & Beer World is part of Majestic Wine Warehouses, the UK's best wine warehouse retailer. We have brought Majestic's buying power and retailing skills to the Channel ports and, although our range is not identical, you will find many Majestic favourites here, at prices at least £2 less per bottle of still wine.

How should I pay?

We accept payment in Sterling, Euros, UK cheques (supported by a valid cheque guarantee card and passport), traveller's cheques and credit or debit cards (Maestro, Visa, Visa Delta and Mastercard). Please allow extra time if paying by cheque or credit card. See the notes below for useful information:

— Exchange rates

We accept both Sterling and Euros. Our prices are in Sterling and we calculate our Euro prices at a fixed rate in store, which may vary depending on the current exchange rate. Any card transactions will be processed in Euros at your card issuers own daily rate, which may differ from our own. To be sure of what you are paying, we advise that you pay in Sterling with either cash or a UK Cheque.

— Cheque authorisation

When payment by cheque is over your card limit guarantee, we will make a short phone call to obtain authorisation from a company called Transax. They are an independent company, who follow a standard procedure for guaranteeing cheques. Transax have no access to your bank account details.

— Credit card authorisation

We now operate the chip and pin system — note we cannot accept your card if you do not know your pin number. We suggest you notify your credit card company before travelling, as several large transactions in France in one day may trigger an automatic security check. Please call the number on your monthly statement.

Can I hire glasses?

Yes. Majestic stores in the UK keep base stocks of glasses, which Wine & Beer World customers are welcome to borrow (deposit payable). This service is subject to availability and must be arranged in conjunction with a pre-order. Please call 01923 298297 to discuss your needs.

How much can I buy?

You can bring home as much wine, beer and spirits as you like, provided it is for your own use (which includes gifts, weddings and parties). Customs & Excise publish guidelines (not limits) of what can be considered reasonable, which are: Wine and/or Champagne, 90 litres, Beer, 110 litres, and Spirits, 10 litres.

If the amount you're buying exceeds these guidelines please be prepared to prove it's for personal use. Please visit www.hmrc.gov.uk or phone 0845 010 9000 for more information.

How much can I carry?

A normal family saloon will easily carry 10 cases (12 bottles) of wine (at 15kg each), 10 packs (24 x 33cl NRB) of beer (at 15kg each), 8 boxes (6 bottles) of Champagne (at 10kg each), and the driver. If in doubt, check your driver's manual for the load capacity of your car.

Can I taste before I buy?

Yes. We offer tastings all day every day in our stores. We always have a wide selection of our best offers available to taste. We can also open additional wines, provided stocks allow and at our discretion. Additionally, we have English speaking staff available who can offer all the product advice you need.

Can I pre-order before travelling?

Yes. We will happily prepare an order placed before you leave home. Simply contact us using the details shown for advice before travelling and we'll do the rest. However, due to UK Duty Laws payment must be made in person in France.

Do you deliver to the UK?

No, we're afraid not. UK Duty Laws mean that the only way to make the most of the French duty saving is to shop in person.

Do you deliver to France?

Yes. We can arrange delivery to French addresses. Please call 01923 298297 for details.

Refunds & Exchanges

We are happy to exchange or refund any product purchased at Wine & Beer World. Simply return them in saleable condition to any Wine & Beer World store with your receipt. Please note that Majestic Wine stores in the UK cannot exchange or refund any product purchased in France.
